Bhavan's school at Wayanad was founded on the auspicious occasion of Vijayadasami 18th Oct.1991. The Bhavan's Wayanad Kendra in the Wayanad District of Kerala is the first Kendra established in a rural area to promote the ideals of Bhavan.

. It is a Co-educational School following NCERT Syllabus under the national curriculum. The School caters the need of general population irrespective of their caste, creed, religion or any other consideration. Ideally situated in a place of scenic beauty with sylvan surroundings facing Nilgiris Biosphere, it is the first School of Bhavan's to be established in rural area. The School promotes and sustains the right type of education so as to enable them to become responsible citizen in life. The School provides ample opportunities to the children of the rural population to excel in academics to pursue their aptitude and developing creative talents. It also undertakes the social responsibilities in assisting poor and economically backward children and the tribal population. Bhavan's Vidya Mandir at Sulthan Bathery is the first Plastic Free Campus in the District. It has got an excellent track record in Board Examinations and other Co-curricular activities.
